

01

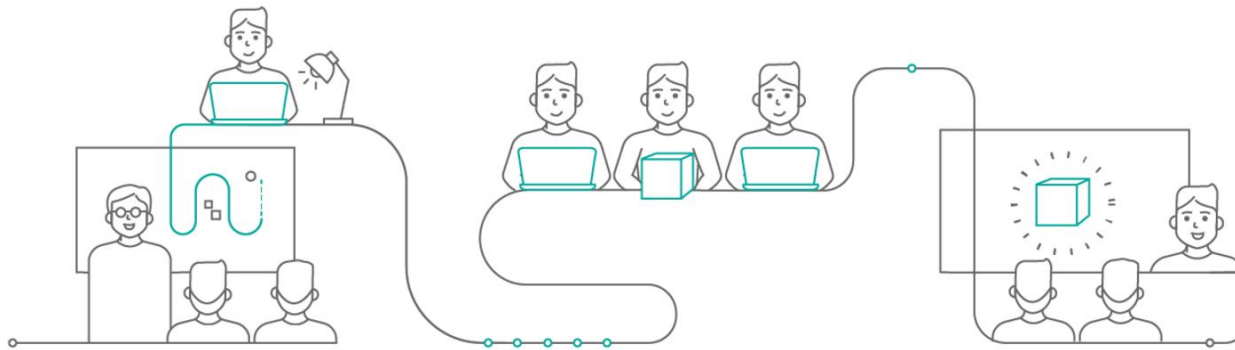

Learn how to code and develop your own product

02

Find your best Co-Founder here

03

Best Support to build your very first product

Training

You will learn how to code and be able to build full stack web application through 7 courses (include doing real project which is building an e-commerce web app) within 6 months.

Incubation

You will form a Startup along with maximum of 4 people from training program and will build your own first product with support from Purwadhika

Demo Day

You will introduce your product and your IT Startup to potential investors, strategic partners, and media. Demo Day is the final event of this Startup Fast Track program.